FEBRUARY 15, 2010, 8:00 PM – CREATING WITH MICROSOFT WORD 2007. Want to express your artsy side while saving money on invitations? Yvonne Paretzky will show us how to create with WORD fonts, colors, graphics and WordArt. We'll create a snazzy invitation from idea to printout and go home with what we need to know to bring our visions to life. And it's free! Class size is limited, so RSVP by Tuesday, February 9, at sisterhood@harshalom.org or call 301.299.7087 x 410.

MARCH 17, 2009, 8:00 PM – ALISON BUCKHOLTZ . Alison, who grew up in Har Shalom, will do a reading followed by a discussion of her book, Standing By, The Making of An American Military Family.

"Everything about this book is unexpected. Although based on Alison Buckholtz's experiences as a military spouse, which is a life of quiet sacrifices and countless hardships, Standing By is a hysterically funny, deeply moving, and ultimately breathtaking book. Any husband or wife will draw inspiration and wisdom from this extraordinary story." —Andrew Carroll, author of the New York Times bestsellers War Letters and Behind the Lines.

MAY 17, 2009, 8:00 PM – Adorn Yourself! By popular demand, Mimi Harris is back to teach us how to make our own necklaces. If you enjoyed our bracelet making class last year, you'll love this year's class. If you missed last year's class, be sure to make it this year! We're still working on the price for the materials and RSVP date, so stay tuned.

IS FOR YOU!
